

Information Required for Proposal

- Location (coordinates) and site name
- Map with area of interest delineated
- Description of site and groundwater situation/problem
- What is expected of investigation

Additional Information 1

(important, but not essential to have all of these)

- Digital elevation model (topo maps, elevation models, LIDAR, etc.)
- Geologic cross-sections
- GIS and CAD data
- Plans and/or drawings of structures of interest
- Map of utilities and other metal culture in the area (e.g. power/telephone lines, metal fencing, railroad tracks etc.)
- Locations of wells, springs, sinkholes, ponds, rivers, lakes, piezometers in and around study area
- Borehole data, well logs, pump tests

Additional Information 2

(usually not necessary, but we will use it if available)

- Aerial photos of site
- Geophysical methods already used
- History of the site and any past remediation efforts
- Property ownership map in and around the site
- Hydrologic and/or geologic models or reports
- Potential site hazards, wildlife, terrain, vegetation, reptiles,